English Language Proficiency Test Pictures

The pictures included here are the duplicated copies prepared for the original CRCELP Tests. The testing materials actually used by the three examiners were attractively colored and mounted on card stock. The picture used for the Free Composition was of poster size and also colored. These pictures would also be suitable for the revised tests with the exception of some renumbering of items. Those used for the Aural Comprehension and Discrimination Subtest have been adapted for group use and are included in the CRC Report, Appendix G.
